

Meeting East Asia's Aging Challenge

A Policy Forum and Book Release Event

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS:

Sudhir Shetty

Chief Economist, East Asia and Pacific, World Bank

Thomas S. Terry

Chairman, Global Aging Institute

Donald P. Kanak

Chairman, Eastspring Investments

PRESENTERS:

Robert Palacios

Global Lead, Pensions and Social Insurance, Social Protection and Labor, World Bank

Richard Jackson

President, Global Aging Institute

DISCUSSANTS:

Olivia Mitchell

Professor, Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania

Pieter Bottelier

Professor Emeritus, SAIS, Johns Hopkins University

Tuesday, February 23, 2016, 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

World Bank

1818 H Street, NW

Room MC C2-131

Washington, DC 20433

Registration begins at 9:30 a.m. ■ Buffet lunch to follow

The World Bank, the Global Aging Institute (GAI), and Jackson National Life Insurance Company invite you to a policy forum on East Asia's aging challenge. The occasion is the joint Washington release of Live Long and Prosper: Aging in East Asia and Pacific (World Bank, 2016), a broad investigation of the economic, social, and policy implications of population aging across the region; and From Challenge to Opportunity: Wave 2 of the East Asia Retirement Survey (GAI, 2015), a survey-based study of changing retirement attitudes and expectations in ten East Asian countries.

Please RSVP to Dung Ngoc-Dung Thi Tran at dtran3@worldbank.org

The event will be streamed live at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ntJuiWaXO9s>