

“Maximising the Potential of the UK’s Ageing Population: Lessons from East Asia and the Rest of the World.”

An ILC-UK and Global Aging Institute private lunch debate supported by Prudential plc

Wednesday 20th April 2016
Attlee Room, House of Lords, Palace of Westminster

Welcome from ILC-UK	Baroness Sally Greengross, Chief Executive, ILC-UK
Welcome from Prudential	Miles Celic, Director of Group Strategic Communications, Prudential plc
The emerging demographic, economic, and social trends shaping the future of retirement	Richard Jackson, President, Global Aging Institute
Initial response from Baroness Greengross	Baroness Sally Greengross, Chief Executive, ILC-UK
Lunch and Discussion	Chaired by Miles Celic, Director of Group Strategic Communications, Prudential plc
Close from Richard Jackson	Richard Jackson, President, Global Aging Institute
Close from ILC-UK	Baroness Sally Greengross, Chief Executive, ILC-UK