The Terry Group and the Global Aging Institute (GAI) invite you to participate in a roundtable discussion on the aging of America. Richard Jackson, GAI President and a leading authority on global aging, will set up the discussion with a presentation that puts America's aging challenge in international perspective, examines promising reform initiatives in other countries, and draws practical lessons for U.S. policymakers, business leaders, and NGOs. The discussion will be wide ranging, covering everything from retirement policy to health-care policy.
